NEWSLETTER FOR
NOVEMBER 2005

Thy Kingdom Come!

The Divine Order: Man, although human, was created by God to live and carry out his existence in the Divine Order rather than in the human order of things. Adam was created and lived in the Divine Order but freely chose to separate from the Divine Will, thus precipitate into the lowly human order of things. The prime purpose of Jesus in Redemption was to restore humanity to the Divine Order. He prayed for this in the Lord's Prayer [Thy Kingdom come, Thy Will be done on earth as It is done in Heaven] and set things in motion through his life of suffering and his Catholic Church to prepare mankind for the completion of Redemption in his creatures, which is none other than the return of man to his original state in the Divine Order. The Divine Order is of Heaven, is of the Blessed Trinity. In the Divine Order, humans will once again, as in the beginning, live life in common with their Heavenly Daddy as his legitimate children. All will be unity, harmony, happiness and delight. The Kingdom will be extended to earth and reign there as in Heaven. God will be fascinated at the sight of his own Will reigning and operating in his children!

Dear Hearts,

May His Kingdom Come!

What a busy month of October it was, and so full of graces! Felicia Murray returned to the HOS on the 6th of October to help with all the activity expected. To have her back was an immense grace for the HOS and for the beautiful souls who come to the House of Sanctification.

We hosted Father Marie-Michael, nine sisters and three brothers for 6 days. These extraordinary souls make up a new order in the Church called the Carmel Vierge Missionaire from France. Fr. Marie-Michael, a great admirer of our beloved late Holy Father, John Paul II, has written several books inspired by him and by the Blessed Mother! He is an excellent retreat master and spiritual director for the souls joining this holy order, and has a wonderful sense of fun and adventure! How privileged we are to have had him and the order visit the House of Sanctification.

I had to leave the HOS during the last few days of Fr. Marie-Michael's stay to fly to Germany for a Divine Will conference we were invited to give by some very prominent and holy persons. I met Thomas and Katherine Fahy, Hugh Owen and Fr. Augustine Davis there. Thomas, Hugh, Fr. Davis and I gave presentations on the doctrine of Luisa Piccarreta and Living in the Divine Will of God! At the end, our host had tears of joy in his eyes as he thanked us for coming to help them better understand this incredible gift, which God wishes to give to all souls!

I would like to express our immense gratitude to Fr. Dietrich and Dr. Alma Von Stockhausen for their extremely warm and gracious welcome! We felt at home immediately! Fr. Dietrich visited the HOS a few years before and I was very impressed with this very special soul then, but to get to know him was a very wonderful grace for all of us. Understandably, we are very happy about Fr. Dietrich and Dr. Alma, his sister's interest in Luisa and her spirituality. Dr. Alma is a very humble soul and was so very generous and kind to us. She was concerned with our every need and want. When we left, it was like parting from very old and dear friends. Fr. Dietrich is a man with a huge heart, warm and caring of everyone. I believe I left my heart with these two extraordinary souls when I had to leave. It was an experience I will never forget!

Another noteworthy mention was the very special souls that came to that conference in Germany! They were a lesson to us all. The example of peace, joy and selflessness we witnessed from these people made my heart fill with gratitude to God for them! How I fell in love with them all and with the atmosphere that this brotherly love created during our conference. We realized we were witnessing a little bit of that "heaven on earth" that will reign over the entire world when all souls will be living in the Adorable Will of God!

We also met Father Gerhard Wenzel, a Franciscan, who has the heart of Jesus! He is an extraordinary soul who loves the Divine Will. We anticipate that this love of his will be a great blessing for Germany, his beloved country! Our last day in Germany, this very kind Priest took us to several very special sights and we so enjoyed his company and the history he gave us of this beautiful country.

When we left Germany, we all came back to the HOS for five days of much needed rest. Felicia, Barbara, Kathy and I prepared the HOS for the four months it is closed. It closes from November 1st until the 1st of March each year. It gets pretty cold here and even most of the villagers leave for the winter. When I return to America it is to work and to enjoy my family. I get to spend a good 6 weeks with them most of the time. It is a great joy to return to America every November, but it is a great joy to come home to Garabandal every 1st of March also!

The HOS closed for this year on October 23rd, the day we all left for Rome, Italy. This included Thomas and Katherine Fahy, Hugh Owen, Fr. Augustine Davis, Barbara Larson, Felicia Murray and myself. We all flew out of Santander, Spain to Rome, Italy where we met with 80 other pilgrims to celebrate an immense and wonderful event. We were heading to the Third International Luisa Piccarreta Congress being held to officially close the Cause of Luisa in the Diocesan level and to send her Cause to the Congregation for the Causes of the Saints in Rome. How thrilled and happy everyone is about this incredible happening! The actual date of the closing of her Cause was October 29, 2005, but before that our group toured a few other places prior to our arrival in Corato on the 26th.

We toured Rome for a day and a half and saw many beautiful and wonderful places, including, of course, the Vatican, St. Paul's outside the wall, St. Mary Major, St. John Lateran, the catacombs, etc. It was exciting and wonderful. I have been to Rome many times, but I can never get over the wonder of our Church and our Faith! How much God loves His Church. Our Church is very impressive, you know! "Hell shall not prevail against it!" Praise God!! How graced I am for being a Catholic, for loving and understanding this Faith in a way that I can practice it in a proper and holy manner. I pray for those who do not understand and who do not practice the Faith as they should or who try to destroy it. May God have mercy on their souls!

We left Rome and drove to Lanciano to see a very old and incredible Eucharistic Miracle! This occurred in the year 700, I believe, to a monk who was doubting the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. As He consecrated the bread into the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Christ, it started bleeding and it turned to flesh. Scientist have done studies on this Flesh and have found that it is a of a human heart, with all the valves and sections that belong to the heart. It is still Flesh and has remained so for over 1300 years.

We left there and headed to San Giovanni Rotundo, the home of St. Padre Pio. He is a Franciscan who had the Stigmata of our Lord Jesus Christ and suffered immensely for the salvation of all souls. He also had many other gifts, including reading souls, knowing your sins, bi-location, visions, among others. He died in 1968, so he lived during our time. You can visit his tomb, and they have Mass all day long—every hour on the hour. He knew of Luisa and was the spiritual director of Rosaria Bucci, the lady who cared for Luisa for 40 years. The very first Cenacle ever to study Luisa's writings was held in San Giovanni Rotundo under the approval and encouragement of St. Padre Pio. It is still being held today in the home of Adriana Pallotti; a dear friend of mine, whom I had the great privilege to live with and study under. She was a spiritual child of St. Padre Pio for 28 years and it was to her that he told, at three different times, to help with the financing to get Luisa's books published.

From San Giovanni Rotundo we went to St. Michael's Cave. What an incredible place this is. It is one of only two places in the whole world that has been Consecrated from Heaven and it is said that whatever is asked for in this cave would be answered. You get very serious when you pray there. I can't think of anything more important to pray for than for God's Kingdom to come and to be established on earth as It is in Heaven and for the salvation of all souls!

We then headed for Corato and the celebrations began the next day on the 27th of October. It was truly marvellous to hear all the testimonies about Luisa and to see how much people love her. All were excited about the advancement of her Cause to Rome so that the Church will finally get to know her and understand the importance and magnitude of her doctrine. Her doctrine will be of incalculable value and influence in the Church and world, because her doctrine teaches us the answer to the Our Father! "Thy Kingdom Come, Thy Will be done on earth as It is done in Heaven!" It teaches us how the Holy Will of God is done in Heaven so that we can do It in the same manner here on earth! It teaches us the original state of Adam and helps us develop the same relationship that Adam had with his Creator, his Father, before the fall.

The 36 volumes that Luisa wrote over a period of 40 years, instructed by Jesus, teaches us about the Gift of the Divine Will given to Adam at the time he was formed and created. But mostly, it teaches us of the immense, eternal, infinite and most tender love God has for each of His creatures—for each of us!

The Congress in Corato was great and everyone had a very blessed time. The event was so wonderful and important that most everyone understood that after the Congress closed some confusion would follow. Lucifer is not happy at all, seeing his final end and demise through the doctrine of Luisa and tries to cause many problems and confusion. I have talked to people who have been involved in this for many years and who are involved in the meetings with the prelates who were responsible at the Diocesan level of Luisa's Cause. I have talked to people who have recently spoken to the Congregation for the Causes of the Saints and who have a good understanding of the truth as they pertain to the study and promotion of the life of Luisa and her writings.

This is a summary of the truth:

1. Continue you Cenacles as usual. It is not disobedient at all to do this. Everyone has a right to live the spirituality they choose as long as it is not condemned by the Church. The Church would be the last to interfere with a souls' relationship with God.
2. Do not accept anyone's commentary or statements following the closing of the Cause in Corato as authoritative. Accept only what is written and signed by persons who have the proper authority in their proper domain.

3. The diocesan tribunal in Luisa's diocese no longer exists. That tribunal has concluded and is no longer in existence. The Cause is now exclusively in Rome. Rome understands that anyone is free to promote whatever they wish as long as it is not done in the name of the Church and has not been condemned by Rome. Not only has Luisa and her writings not been condemned but her writings have been approved by a Saint who was commissioned by the Church as censor of her writings.
4. The Archdiocese of Trani has authority concerning the legal aspects of publishing Luisa's writings because they have the legal rights to her writings, but the general authority of the Archdiocese of Trani only extends within its own borders, as is the case with all the individual dioceses in the Church.
5. I say all the above in good conscience and hope that it helps you and the others in your group to be at peace and to continue to grow in your knowledge and life in the Divine Will as usual. The 1983 Code of Canon Law is very favourable about the rights of the lay people of God.

Please do not believe everything you hear or read, especially if it is negative. Confusing rumours do not come from God but from the one who wants to stop the knowledge of the reign of the Divine Will at all costs.

I love you all very much and want only for your relationship with God to be as full and as complete as possible to a creature! This intention I keep in my prayers always!

"The true living in my Will is to reign in It and with It, while doing my Will is to be at my orders. The first state is to possess; the second is to attend to Its dispositions, to execute Its orders. The living in my Will is to make my Will one's own; it is to use It. To do my Will is to perceive It as the Will of God, not as one's own and not to use as one wishes. To live in my Will is to live with one single will, which is God's. And because there is only one Will which is all holy, all pure, and all peace; and because there is but one Will that reigns, there is no resistance; everything is peace. Human passions tremble before this Supreme Will. They would like to flee from It, but do not dare to move or oppose It because they see that Heaven and earth tremble before this Holy Will. So the first step to live in the Divine Will, which seeks to give to a creature the Divine Order, is in the depth of the soul where Grace moves it to empty itself of all that is human—tendencies, passions, inclinations, as well as other things.

"On the other hand, to do my Will is to live with two wills, so that when I give orders to carry out mine, creatures feel the weight of their own will, which causes resistance and, even though they faithfully execute the orders of my Will, they feel the weight of their rebellious nature, their passions and inclinations. And how many Saints, in spite of having reached the highest perfection, feel this will of theirs that goes to war with them, that keeps them oppressed. They are obliged to cry: 'Who will free me from this body of death, from the will that wants to destroy the good that I wish to do?'

"The living in my Will is to live as a son. It could be said by comparison that only doing my Will is to live as a servant. In the first, what the Father possesses, so also does the son. Moreover, it is well known that the servants are obligated to make more sacrifices than the son. It is up to them to endure the most tiring and most lowly services—in the cold, heat, traveling by foot, and other such tasks. In fact, how much have my Saints not done, although my dearest friends, to carry out the orders of my Will? On the other hand, the son is with his father, who takes care of him, cheers him with his kisses and with his caresses. The son commands and orders the servant as though he were the father. If he leaves, he does not go by foot but travels by carriage. And if the son possesses all that belongs to the father, he does not give the servants more wages or reward than are merited by the work they have done. They remain free to serve or not to serve their master. And if they do not serve, they no longer have a right to receive any reward or compensation. On the other hand, between father and son, no one can dissolve these intimate relations by which the son possesses the goods of the father. No law, either celestial or terrestrial, can annul these rights, because the relationship between father and son can never be broken.

"My daughter, the living in my Will is a living that most approaches the Blessed in Heaven. It is as distant from those who simply conform to my Will and faithfully do It as Heaven is from earth, or a son from a servant, or a king from his subject. And moreover, this is a gift that I want to give in these times so sad: That they not only do my Will, but that they possess It. Can I not, as owner, give what I wish, when I wish and to whom I wish? Is not an owner able to say to a servant: 'Live in my house, eat, drink, decree in my behalf'? And to ensure that no one impede the possession of his goods, he establishes this servant as his son and gives him the right of possession. If a rich man can do this, how much more can I!

"This living in my Will is the greatest gift that I can give to creatures. My kindness and generosity always wishes to overflow more with love towards creatures. And having given them everything, not having anything else to give them so I might be loved, I want to give them the Gift of my Will, so that, possessing It, they will appreciate the great good they possess.

"Do not be amazed if you see that they do not understand. To understand they would have to dispose themselves to the greatest of sacrifices, which is not giving life, even in holy things, to their own will. Only then will they feel the possession of mine, and they will experience what it means to live in my Will. Be attentive, then, and do not become annoyed by the difficulties they cause. I will make my way little by little so that the living in my Will is understood."
